SENDING RAINBOWS

THE WINDERMERE FARM MONTHLY UPDATE

Nothing burst our bubble!

Dear valued clients and friends,

Another financial year has ended and so let us battle into the carbon tax future, never letting anyone or anything burst your bubble!

I believe the mind set of people determine their future. Be it difficult sometimes, I think keeping a positive outlook, plus having something to look forward to, goes a long way to maintain happiness.

Shares are still available for this lovely colt by Trotamondo

I will therefore remind you all, that we have a magnificent young Colt, rising two yrs old. Only 50% left at a reasonable price, beginning with 5% ownership at $1255 until the end of May. Whilst spelling-- approximate costs, = $40 per month, training = $175.

The Snippetson Filly has now been sold to many astute judges, thank you all for your support. She's at school at present, or being joined up (hate the term breaking in). Of course being bred to sprint, gave her a head start on the Trotamondo colt (his breeding is on the next page).

Although bred to be middle distance to staying, still gives him every right to compete as a two year old. There are certainly no rules in this game. Please feel free to come have a look anytime.

*Ray's got it covered at the open day...
Sunnies, Umbrella, Fire !!*

Thank you to all that braved the rain and the cold to attend our open days. I think I should have a serious talk to the open day Gods, about our luck in choosing the right day weather wise!

I begin the news of the past month, with our first runner at Warwick farm on the 2nd of June. SHADES OF GREEN, we thought, maybe she'd had enough, as she'd been up and raced seven times this prep, including two wins. Quite enough for a slight little filly, however, she showed us otherwise and ran a bottler. Wide all the way from an outside barrier, she fought out the finish to be beaten only half a length to run fifth. Apprentice Shaun Guymer stated the obvious, "draws a barrier she wins".

Finally her system said "time for a holiday", when the only excuse at Newcastle on the 19th was, a not a good track. We have kept her warm rug on, whilst out spelling in the paddock, along with two very confused babies asking "does that thing grow on you when you get older?"

Off we trotted to Royal Bathurst on the 12th, with BLACK PIRATE; I hope you find the pun amusing below his photo. Honestly, the only reason we raced him, apart from him being the only three year old in the race, plus lugging a hefty 60-1/2 kgs, was one reason, THE TRACK. As we know PIRATE, at this stage on wet tracks, feels the ground shift under his enormous stride; this must give him the feeling of actually doing the splits. Perhaps that's why they would never run Black Caviar on a wet track; they knew the odds were against her handling it, with such an enormous stride. With all of that said, he ran a gallant 3rd after taking off before the turn to round his rivals, only just being caught in the last two strides to go down by a half a neck by half a neck.

BLACK PIRATE returned to Bathurst on the 26th, to what was supposed to be a dead 4 track rating, then after the 2nd race a dead 5 and so it went on, without a drop of rain to become a slow 7 (you're joking). The track was disgusting and many trainers have written to the BT club, plus Mr. Murrhy, complaining about false advertising. We would not have travelled the distance, especially to see Pirate crucified by GB and what was more upsetting was, he blamed his? ---- Ride on PIRATES mood on the day (click here to watch a video of the said cranky horse). Thank heavens, we live to run again, he's done well since the run and his loving trainer, has spoilt him with carrots and free time in the paddock. We are now looking at Kembla, 1600 on the 10th or Saturday 14th at Warwick farm, 3yr old 80-BM, 1600.

SHHH!! Don't let anyone know I am here... They want me to carry 60½ kgs!! And I'm the only 3 year old in the race.

THE COBRA KING and LORD ROW were the only two other runners in June. Both need to improve, ----- In the barriers for the COBRA after he was scratched and mentally for LORD. SMART AUSBRED is in his second month of training; no doubt he knows what it's all about and wants to get on with it!! He's grown a hand.

BILLIT, looks like an add from Jenny Craig, after coming up from the back paddock, surviving only on grass, for two months. He's thrived, all muscled up and looking very racy, after being in work for near eight weeks. He'll trial on the 16th at Hawkesbury, showing us where to go with him next.

We couldn't be happier with AUSBRED BENZ; he's maturing into a magnificent horse. Being the final and last foal out of the wonder mare Stormy Zephyr, he should do his siblings proud, AUSBRED KING and AUSBRED BLUE to name only two.

SACRED JOURNEY happily I'm sure, will return to work this Monday the 2nd July.

Sandy Bachelor's mare TALES TO TELL is coming along very nicely and will trial on the 16th at Hawkesbury. Oh yes, Pat Latter (artist extraordinaire) has painted the most amazing painting of TALES T T. The painting is entered in the Inglis thoroughbred art awards. BLACK PIRATE made the final of the inaugural contest last year. GOOD LUCK GIRLS!!

We look forward to HAMBERG'S return next week, after his stint at the water walker. Hopefully, his bandaged Paddington bear status, will hold him together for at least one or two more wins this coming prep. We know he certainly puts his heart into it.

Our beloved Sandra Tremier (the French connection) leaves us for a short holiday home to France this July 16 to August 16.

Bonjour to the wonderful, lovely, Tremier family, have a great time with your prodigal daughter xoxoxo.

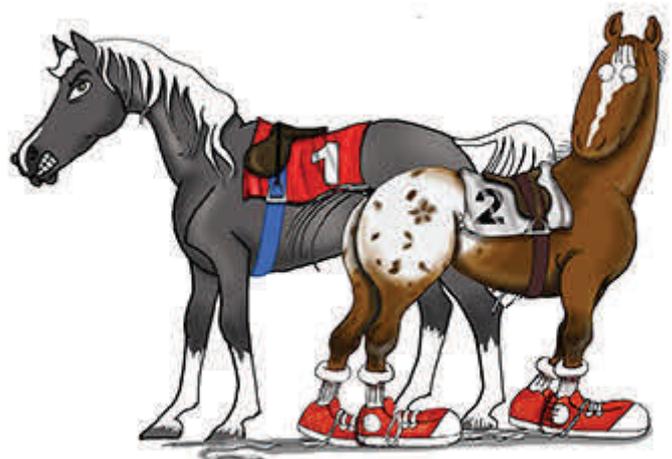

Chris and Lyn Lawlor having a ball at Ascot, Go Aussie!!

While I'm at it, welcome home to Lynn and Chris Lawlor, whom have recently returned from a wonderful European tour including two days all dolled up for Royal Ascot.

Sending good wishes and good health to all,

Dor & Wade

The deal with the Chinese publishers is they want five more stories on top of my five already published stories, to put in a hard cover book containing ten stories.

So, the fingers will be doing a bit of tap dancing in between races.
