THE WINDERMERE FARM MONTHLY UPDATE

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Dear valued clients and friends,

Last month we wished you a Merry Christmas. Now it's time to wish you a very happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year! We trust you will have your fair share of good luck and winners throughout 2015.

I'm going to cheat this month, by this I mean I will not give a full scale account of the few horses that raced in the month of December. I have a deadline to meet with my book and my poor fingers are worn out with typing.

I will only say, there were no winners, but promising runs along with the disappointments. I've kept all owners abreast of what happened and now I will name the horses coming up to trial on the 19/1/2015, at Hawkesbury.

SACRED JOURNEY is one, CHEERS FOR AUSBRED and unfortunately AUSBRED CUTIE has to trial, after her mishap in the barriers at Orange last Sunday the 28th.

Grandchildren, Grace, Nickolas, Arianna and Emma, enjoy another Christmas present and a magnificent lunch at the Sebel-Windsor.

Poor Wadey, not much rest for horse trainers on Christmas day. Black Pirate still had to be put out and brought back in from his day paddock. Nobody tells the horses it's Christmas.

We'll take SNIPAROSE & VENCEDORA to race at Bathurst on the 20th. Snip will be in a filly's and mare's maiden 1100mts, and Veni in a class 1, over 1400.

BLACK PIRATE will have his chance at a win on the 10/1 at Newcastle over the 1850 mt journey.

I do apologise for my short note and wish you once again, HAPPY NEW YEAR, from all at Windermere Farm.

Good luck and good punting!!

Guess what, I found one of Santa's helpers under the Christmas tree! I wish.. this is Leonardo, Ross Daisley's second Grandson.

It seems our dear young friend Jane Gollan, may have given up horse training for dog training!! Click here to watch video

And so another day closes, and a new year begins on the farm.

Oops, another balloon comes down at the farm. The horses think they're great! Don't know so much, if we put them in one?
