SENDING RAINBOWS

THE WINDERMERE FARM MONTHLY UPDATE

Spring is here!

Dear valued clients and friends,

We hope this newsletter finds you happy and well.

Looking forward to Spring? It's here!

Our dear friends Jacqueline and Phillip have great pleasure in spending time in their Swiss chalet during Spring. One day, when we're not too old we may visit them.

Happy Fathers Day

Hawkesbury greeted us with a fine day and a good track for our four stable mates.

OUR ANNIVERSIARE, settled back last over 1400MTS, and stormed home to run a close second. Unfortunately, a week later she spiked a temperature which kept returning. The fighter that she is, has beaten whatever ailed her and she is now back ready to run in September. Owners will be informed.

TOO CHIC, hadn't raced for six weeks and returned with an eye-catching run over 1500 when she also ran home with conviction to run a close 6th

JEWEL OF HONOUR had no luck at all when stuck in between and behind horses which were going nowhere in a hurry.

ROVING EYE also showed promise, running home over 2000mts.

Our next port of call was Kembla. ROVING EYE backed up, but showed he was not ready to do so.

The true stayers of racing. Jennifer Churchill, Phil Bowen, Wade, Gillian McCall and John Hardman found it hard to leave the enclosure after Our Anniversaries' valiant 2nd.

VENCEDORA, plus Jennifer and I braved the cold at Bathurst 18/8. Veni put in a sterling effort after being taken on for the lead and fighting off contenders to finally run third beaten a length. It snowed on our way home, Jennifer was delighted, as she'd never seen snow before. I wasn't tempted to stop the car so she could play in it!

The following day, free of snow we ventured to Kembla, where TOO CHIC showed us she was back with a vengeance. Such a wonderful display of courage, she showed to run 2nd, a bit further than 1600mts and she wins. Chic will race at Hawkesbury 2/9.

Unfortunately, Jewel of Honour, unlike her mate, tapped the mat to run last. Out to spell for Jewel.

A blast from the past.

Lisa was doing work experience as a steward, 1991? at Canterbury when Wade trained Misty Patch to win! Our dear young friend Monique Miller, now Mrs Robinson, married to trainer Terry, is the strapper.

LEGISTATION also ran at Kembla, he ran an unlucky fifth. Not a lot of luck this prep with Legislation and not a lot of suitable races. Though he has the ability, sometimes the universe seems set against us. We pray it takes a swing around and Legi can find form and good luck.

ROVING EYE had picked up since the Kembla no-backup performance and was duly sent around at Hawkesbury 23/8, over 1800mts. This he completed with his usual promising form. We do trust his promises will come true this prep!

We look forward to polishing the horses who came into work this month, some still unnamed, Reba, a Roman Emperor filly, plus ROMAN PRINCESS, who we nick named Matilda, and who will trial in September, as will TRADE STAR, Shadow and Sally are coming along nicely. All horses spelling are doing well.

Sending rainbows.

Cheers
Dor & Wade

It was a great pleasure to meet Dawna Leung, the co-ordinator of Mandarin Stars, where I presented my bi-lingual (English/Mandarin) Wicky Wacky Farm Stories.

Doreen Slinkard

AUTHOR

Another entertaining and informative Romance Writers Conference, was enjoyed by yours truly. The meeting took place in Brisbane at the Pullman Mercure hotel, 11-14/8 where we 500 women and a few men stayed, what a hoot. I pitched my fourth novel, Henri-Etta and Co, to three publishers and all took it on board. Once again, fingers crossed it gets publish in Australia. The theme of the conference was LOVE GONE WILD!

I will proof read the print version of my novel For the Love of Patrick, 31/8, if all is in order then it will hit the shelves, early September and of course be available once again on line – Kindle.

You can purchase my books at:

The theme of the Romance Writers conference / cocktail party this year, was 'Love Gone Wild.' Not wild enough? Well the judges thought the same, we didn't win a prize!
